MIDLAND GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

---

The links of the Club are located on parts of Lots Numbers ONE HUNDRED AND NINE (109) and ONE HUNDRED AND TEN (110) in the First Concession of the Township of Tiny, in the County of Simcoe, comprising a total of one hundred and forty (140) acres. This property is on the old military road, leading from Barrie to Penetanguishene, known as the Penetang road, and is at the juncture of this road with the road leading to Midland. The property is almost equally distant from the two towns, and from the Club House verandahs, Midland Harbor is in view and also part of Penetanguishene.

The property, forming the links, was purchased in July and August in 1917, and work was commenced on the course in the Spring of 1918.

The formal opening of the Club took place on Saturday, May 31st, 1919. The founder and first President of the Club, Mr. James Playfair, of Midland, drove the first ball from number one tee, and afterwards the course was opened by a four-ball match, in which the Amateur Champion of Canada, Mr. G. S. Lyon and Lieut. Wilfred James, of the Lambton Club, played Mr. B. L. Anderson, Hon. Secretary of The Royal Canadian Golf Association, and Mr. Seymour Lyon. The match resulted in a win for Messrs. Anderson and Seymour Lyon 3 and 1. The scores:

Mr. George S. Lyon.....	Out 41, In 42—83
Mr. W. C. James.....	Out 43, In 44—87
Mr. B. L. Anderson.....	Out 41, In 44—85
Mr. Seymour Lyon.....	Out 45, In 40—85

(e) Members must give timely notice to the steward of their intention to dine at the Club in order that they may receive proper attention.

(f) Members who fail to give notice are reminded that their omission must necessarily involve an inefficient service to themselves and a grave injustice to those who comply with the request.

Article 18.—

The Board may make such alterations in the present rules or make such new rules as it may consider expedient and such alterations and new rules shall remain in force till the next general meeting of the Club.

RULES GOVERNING THE GAME.

The rules governing the game of golf in this Club shall be those adopted from time to time by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club at St. Andrews, subject to such modifications as may be locally necessary.

The Board may formulate for the Ladies' Branch, and for the Club generally, such rules and regulations as may be deemed expedient, and may delegate its powers to the committees.

ETIQUETTE OF GOLF.

1. No one should stand close to or directly behind the ball, move, or talk when a player is making a stroke.

On the putting-green no one should stand beyond the hole in the line of a player's stroke.

2. The player who has the honour should be allowed to play before his opponent tees his ball.

3. No player should play from the tee until the party in front have played their second strokes and are out of range, nor play up to the putting-green till the party in front have holed out and moved away.

4. Players who have holed out should not try their putts over again when other players are following them.

5. Players looking for a lost ball should allow other matches coming up to pass them; they should signal to the players following them to pass, and having given such a signal, they should not continue their play until these players have passed and are out of reach.

6. Turf cut or displaced by a player should be at once replaced and pressed down with the foot.

7. A player should carefully fill up all holes made by himself in a bunker.

8. Players should see that their caddies do not injure the holes by standing close to them when the ground is soft.

9. A player who has incurred a penalty stroke should intimate the fact to his opponent as soon as possible.
